My time at L'Anse Creuse High School

"My most memorable experiences from LCHS came from the remarkable teachers. My English teacher Mrs. Grifka still is my favorite teacher of all time. She made me want to be a better writer and the skills that she taught me are the foundation of what I use every day as an attorney. My Spanish teacher Mr. Watkins introduced me to art history in a project that he assigned during my senior year and I eventually went on to study it in college. After conducting a mock criminal trial in Mr. Briggs' practical law class, I knew that I wanted to practice law."
